

Arctic Kids - winter explorers

Explore the arctic winter in Narvik packed with experiences! Sledding, northern lights, train, skiing, history and family fun awaits you!

Narvik offers 4 days packed with arctic winter activities. Join us on an adventurous train ride to the mountains hunting the magic northern lights. Improve your skiing skills, feel the snow in your face heading down the hills on snow sleds, and learn the history on why Narvik was so important during the second world war.

DAY 1 – An evening at Narvik War Museum

Narvik War Museum invites you to 2 hours of learning through activities and artifacts. Why was Narvik so important during the 2nd World War? How was it to be a child during the war? Don't forget to look for the magic arctic key to unlock the rest of the adventurous days.

DAY 2 – Hunting the northern lights by train

The guide will welcome you on board the Arctic Train at Narvik Train Station. During the trip you will learn about Aurora Borealis, the northern light. When stopping at Katterat station the hunt begins, not only for the light – but will you find the treasure by using your magic arctic key?

DAY 3 – Visit Narvikfjellet Ski resort

It is time for a full day with unique arctic winter experiences at the ski resort. Ski school, cable car, playground, down hill sledding and snowshoes are great ways to enjoy the mountain side. The evening will be spent inside the cosy Camp Lodge, cuddled up near the fireplace, with hot chocolate and good times. A perfect way to end an active day! But wait – does the Lodge have a place where the magic arctic key fits? And what will it reveal?

DAY 4 – A powerful morning at Narvik Museum

Explore the museums interactive display on energy designed for children and young people. The museum also has an EI-12 locomotive. Visit the museum for slide shows, movies and exhibitions. Don't forget to use your key at the museum, it might be worth it!
